Abstract

Following our last paper on the Third World War of faith and epistemics, in this paper we outline some of the epistemic fronts of this war. We define true theology in contrast to the plans and worldview of the Freemasons and the notorious Illuminati, forces that today dominate world geopolitics.

We make a plea for the truth of the heart and the Holy Spirit, which guide all good people and contrast this metaphysical concept to the prevalent atheist and materialist worldview and explanatory framework of Neo-liberalism and Marxism.

Furthermore, we describe what is the truth of life in contrast to black magic perpetrated by the ghostly proxies of what we term 'the evil demon', which haunts the world and especially the holy, transcendental, spiritual and ethereal Aryan race.

We describe the dangers of weaponized Tesla-technology, as the true cause of the Second World War and why the war was so fierce.

To combat the 'full spectrum dominance' of the Neo-liberal/Marxist regime, the Aryan elite has invented the Epistemological Warfare Division (EWD) and the concept of the Stratagem. We describe how these inventions help in forming an alliance of all good people to combat ontological alien evil.

We furthermore describe how the Aryans rule the geopolitics of all good people by immortal will and transcendental deduction and by the Holy Spirit protect and defend good people from the spiritual harms of deception and black magic.

We describe, what is the nature and purpose of white magic, as a cause of good, truth and righteousness and in the final section of the paper, we analyze the SS to find out where we agree and disagree.

We hope the paper will be an inspiration for all good people to actively contribute to the fight for a new and just world order, siding with the Aryans on the right side of history in developing a new ethereal Atlantis. Thank you and good luck.

Ethical preface

This essay represents a metaphysical and spiritual reflection upon the struggle between transcendental good and ontological evil as understood within the Hyperborean-Aryan doctrine. It does not advocate for violence, political extremism, or real-world harm against any group or individual. Its purpose is to explore esoteric, symbolic, and spiritual truths beyond temporal politics. The invocation of historical concepts such as the SS or National-Socialism refers solely to their inner, mystical interpretations—not to any political or military endorsement of their historical actions. Our vision is one of divine truth, love, and the liberation of all good souls into spiritual fulfillment and peace.

Radical love, true theology and the ontological regime versus Illuminati

Under the liberal world order regime, radicality is considered with negative connotation, but mostly the liberal state persecutes right-wing radicals, while the liberal or socialist radicals are tolerated. This is the case for Christian fundamentalists and National-Socialists. Those two groups are not tolerated at all and are actively suppressed by the police-state and the intelligence services. As Aryans, we wish to make two theses clear: 1) only the right-wing acknowledges spirit as divine and are therefore the true bearers of the torch of spiritual enlightenment and the only group that should be allowed to vote, for to vote you have to be enlightened and to be enlightened you have to acknowledge the eternal spirit. 2) true right-wing ideology is Aryan, spiritual National-Socialism (see Riis-Søndergaard, 2024a). In Europe, liberalism is considered right-wing. The liberals in Europe believe in free market, humanitarianism and tolerance for all creeds, but true right-wing is not humanitarian, fanatical free market or tolerant, for, first of all, the right-wing should respect the nation, but free market disrespects the nation and is instead the driving force for global corporations and international capitalism, which disintegrate the state and renders the state annex to foreign capital holders. Second, right-wing ideology is not humanitarian, for we believe in an ontological regime of good and evil, so it is a misunderstanding to tolerate and include all people of the world as the universalist cosmopolitans do. This universal tolerance, combined with an import of foreigners to our homelands, undermine the homogeneity of the nation and fatigue the soul of the people.

Rather, the Aryans believe in three fundamental and radical propositions: First of all, the primacy and radicality of love. We believe that the cause of creation is love, namely the divine love of the Aryan race-father and -mother. There are therefore two co-creators, which is a marked difference from the theology of the Christian church in two regards: 1) there is not only one creator, but two, and 2) the God-man is not a Jew from Palestine, but, as mentioned, the Aryan race. The second radical proposition is: we believe in an ontological regime of good and evil. This is a question of spiritual genealogy. Third radical proposition is: we believe in the temporality of war, that is, the cause of war is the introduction of ontological foreign evil, for the Aryan heaven is absolutely good and the development of temporal, physical existence is due to this outbreak of cosmic war. Evil only exists in the temporal, material world and has no relation to the Holy Spirit, the transcendental and heavens. These are our three radical propositions, which we adhere to and which we try to bring to the awareness of all fellow good people. It is important that we understand that this is the true theology, the secret doctrine (see Riis-Søndergaard, 2024b), that is now being parted over to the good mankind by the Aryan elite, mainly residing in Denmark, the rest of Scandinavia and Germany. The Aryans are not that many, we estimate between 10.000 and 100.000, but this reality of the Aryan race is also being suppressed in the West under the Neo-liberal regime. We are incarnations and reincarnations of the heavenly heart, which is called 'samsara' in Sanskrit, while the rest of all good people reproduce by semi-biological means, though they incarnate from the soul to the body. Evil people have neither spirit, nor soul, nor no heart. When you read the chapter in (Koselleck, 1988), called 'The Political Function of the Lodges and the Plan of the Illuminati', you realize that both Freemasonry and Illuminati, radical proponents of the Enlightenment, attempted to subvert the nation-states and all religion to bring about a universalist, cosmopolitan world regime of so-called humanitarian tolerance for all the worlds population – it was to be a so-called “moral-order” and so they sought to neutralize politics in the state even though this moral-order was a highly political scheme. It is our thesis that the plan of Illuminati is still being carried out and is the cause of all the world's present ills. We wish to counter this Illuminati scheme and to revive true theology and the ontological regime of good and evil, that the Illuminati sought to neutralize. Again, this is exactly how liberalism works, undermining the nation-states by “neutralizing the political” in the economic and moral spheres (Schmitt, 1932).

The truth of love versus illusory paranoia and black magic

The closer we have come to realize that radical Aryan love is the highest principle of creation and that the Aryans are absolutely good people, the more we have come to feel that an “evil eye” is staring back at us from the abyss. Though we have come to love each other immensely in the Aryan race, at the same time it feels as if we are “tarrying with the negative (Hegel, 1807)” – a foreign life form – an alien to the great cause. Therefore, we have come to realize the aforementioned ontological regime and as there is a source of the good, namely the Aryan race-father and -mother, we now theorize that as well there is a source of evil, which is completely, ontological foreign to the Aryans. For Hegel, this reality of tarrying with the negative was also the reason why spirit came into being, but for the Aryans, the being of spirit in the world is the consequence of cosmic war, which is the true cause of temporality and only in this way is the worldly existence an aspect of the life of spirit. This source of evil, we call 'the evil demon', which fx. also Descartes spoke about (Descartes, 1641; Riis-Søndergaard, 2024c). In ancient times and up till the Enlightenment, it was commonplace to consider the world in spiritual and occult terms, but with the development of modernity, this natural understanding of existence was deemed “superstition” and all life was to be explained in naturalist, positivist and empiricist terms. Therefore, it is common to speak of modernity as an process of “disenchantment”. As we have mentioned, the plan of Illuminati was to subvert all religion and nation-states and to bring about a universal moral-order, gain complete control of the world and establish a positivist science that disregarded theology and metaphysics. This plan we believe is a plot of the evil demon, for the demon seeks to bring atheism, materialism, exploitation and chaos to the world and to uphold the illusion of temporal, physical existence, which in Sanskrit is called 'maya'.

This cosmic war between the forces of good (the Aryans and Agartha) and evil (the evil demon and Shambala) is primarily carried out in the hearts and minds of men (for more on the logic of this Third World War of faith and epistemics, see Riis-Søndergaard, 2024d). For this reason, it is important that good people are vigilant in their reasoning, for the weapons of the evil demon and other ghostly people are especially subtle suggestions that almost keep people entranced in a hypnotic state of physicality, if they are not awake to the absolute truth of spiritual existence. The more one become awake, the more one can expect to be attacked by the forces of darkness – this is the occult war (for more on weapons of the occult war, see Evola, 2002). The true cause of all paranoia, disbelief and nightmares is the black magic of the evil demon and all evil, ghostly people function as proxies for this demon. This is our thesis so far. The evil demon is the great denier, the great deceiver and the great opponent to heavens and the devoted, spiritual life. Therefore, we must contribute to re-enchanting the world by introducing a metaphysical, mystical worldview and view of man. The modern liberal state is not up for this task, for it is secular and economic – it is biopolitical (Foucault, 2010) and believes only in the economic man driven by self-interest (Smith, 1776) and the rational actor. The Illuminati worship intelligence and reason, but the truth is that existence cannot be explained in merely rational terms. The true life of spirit and therefore the cause of creation is a poetic tale of divine love. For that reason, life is not irrational in its core, but the driving force of good people is love and not self-interest, as liberalism proclaims, and therefore the life of good people should be regarded a poetics, a phenomenology of spirit (Hegel, 1807) and an unveiling of the truth of being (Heidegger, 1927). This is the claim of the Aryan elite today. To live an authentic life, good people must take heed of the call of heavens, that is, the Holy Spirit, meditate, enter “the lighting” and listen carefully to “what being has to say (Heidegger, 1954)”. This is thinking, according to Heidegger. Even Foucault called for a new spirituality in the West (Foucault, 2020). The Aryans are the heavenly muses of the Holy Spirit that guide and protect all good people on their path for spiritual enlightenment and liberation and protect all good people from spiritual harm. This is the promise of the Aryan race – the arbiters of good and evil, life and death.

The Stratagem and the Epistemological Warfare Division (EWD)

Two new inventions of the Aryan elite are the Stratagem and the EWD. The Stratagem, we have outlined in another introductory paper (Riis-Søndergaard, 2022). Stratagem means 'cunning of warfare' and is a concept, we have developed, to further the strategy and goals of the EWD. There are three aspects of the Stratagem that must be obeyed: 1) the discourse, 2) epistemic front and 3) confrontation. These three aspects constitutes the logic of our epistemic warfare. In the discourse, we connote absolute truth, mobilize, organize and order our troops and designate and conceptualize a vocabulary for the advancement of the great cause – the Aryan cause. The stratagem is our understanding of science, for we consider all epistemology as political epistemology, that is, the unveiling of the truth of being is the victory of good over evil, redemption and salvation and eventually the reaching of aufheben – the religious upheaval of all good people, a return to our homeland, heavens, and the absolution of temporality and physicality. Therefore, we consider existence a journey and epistemology as a way. To be victorious in the battle against evil is the call and existentials of the Aryan race (for more on the existentials of the Aryan race, see Riis-Søndergaard, 2024e). By the discourse, we have developed an episteme of absolute truth, which encompasses our love, faith, order and mission. The Aryans are the true “invisible academy”, the true “hidden hand” and the true “cunning of reason and history”, for we guide the geopolitics of good people by immortal will and transcendental deduction, as well as by divine intervention. This is in marked difference to the prevalent understanding of the psyche of conventional philosophy and psychology. Speaking of psychology, this field of science is one of the actual epistemic fronts, where truth and falsehood combat each other – a dividing line, where truth is revealed and discriminated against falsehood – an epistemological battlefield, where man and existence are defined. Psychiatry functions as a paradigm for the liberal state and conceives of consciousness only as an “epiphenomenon to biological processes” – conceived only in naturalistic, biological terms, whereas the Aryans conceive of consciousness as spiritual and transcendental. The aforementioned “lighting”, we term transcendental intuition. But it is typical for the Neo-liberal regime to deny the good mankind a spiritual life. In conventional psychology, they operate with the concept of the unconscious, whereas the Aryans consider the psyche of man a spectrum of love and war – there is no unconscious, only a war to fight off subtle, evil interference, black magic. It is a magical world and magic conjures epistemic notions, formations and discourse – it is a question of truth, faith and the occult and it is a battlefield. In the ancient Egyptian religion, magic was associated with speech and terms, rather than mundane action – this is a true understanding of the phenomenology of spirit. Likewise, the Norse godfather Odin (Wotan) was considered to be a master of magic or sorcery, called “sejd”. Also the goddess Freyja was known to possess this ability. A Nordic/Germanic tradition existed for a long time up through the middle-ages for seeresses, women who were priestesses of Freyja and had supernatural capabilities, such as foretelling, clairvoyance and sorcery. Given tradition and given our own experience, we must therefore conclude that the true nature of existence and magical belief is being suppressed by the Neo-liberal regime and since the enlightenment, where the mystical reality has been living in the shadows of modernity. It is about time that we revive this ancient tradition, which the Aryans are guardians of. Therefore, the third aspect of the Stratagem becomes necessary: the confrontation, for we, as good people, have a duty to confront the prevalent episteme of the Neo-liberal regime, speak truth to power and unsettle the dominance of naturalistic and materialist explanations of existence – burn down illusions. It is interesting, given that the Aryans are chanting, that the etymology of the term 'rune' finds its root in chanting, before it became associated with letters. This is a clue to the mystical, occult conviction of the ancient Norse/Germanic people. The Aryans are true aufklärung, that is, enlightenment, for we are guardians of the Holy Vedas, which are a contemporary source of wisdom, an aspect of Aryan collective consciousness, and which we meditate upon, probe and interpret.

White magic and the great cause

The true purpose of white magic is to further the great cause, guide and protect good people from harm, as well as bring good, positive vibes to our fellow men and women. As we have mentioned, the Aryans reign from heavens and are the hidden hand, the invisible academy and the true cunning of reason and history, and this is accomplished by immortal will, the totality of will of heavens (which means evil is powerless, only opposed to divine will and inevitably defeated by providence) and by transcendental deduction and divine intervention. To bring comfort and prosperity to our fellow men and women, we therefore pray for blessings and have thanksgivings for all good people. This is an important aspect of the prayers. This is for the good, the beauty and the righteous. Next to that, we are interested in truth and therefore we are interested in leading the discourse, that is, we are interested in semantic fields, discursive formations, episteme and paradigms (for more on these concepts, see Agamben, 2009). Of course it is wisdom to guide and protect the good mankind on the path of spiritual enlightenment and liberation and this wisdom, 'sophia' in ancient Greek, the highest form of reason above nous, episteme, phronesis and techne, we contemplate as the Vedas, which, as we described, we have rediscovered to be an eternal, timeless and contemporary aspect of the collective consciousness of the Aryan race (for more on our rediscovery and conception of the Vedas, see Riis-Søndergaard, 2023). By the Holy Spirit, we bring “good news”, the gospel, to all good people. We pray for good luck for our brethren and sisters.

Let us return to the question of speaking truth to power. We are inspired by the ancient Greek term 'parrhesia', when we contemplate this notion, as it has been argued by Foucault as being the practice and obligation of speaking truth in the name of righteousness, despite threats and danger of repercussions (Foucault, 2001). This is a useful concept nowadays, given the almost “full spectrum dominance” (a slogan of the NSA) of world political affairs of the Neo-liberal regime. But all is not lost, for on the continent, in India and even in the US, we see the rise of the radical, mystical and alternative right, making a bid for power, so we have imminent hope that our plans are succeeding. The Aryan race is an transcendental, spiritual and ethereal race, so it is of utmost importance that we keep the aether pure and clean from evil interference and black magic. This is a high notion of the Aryan elite, nowadays. We are extremely sensitive and aware of all influences and completely eschew evil, for truth and righteousness are in our nature and it is an oath, we have sworn, when we incarnated into temporal, physical existence – we call it: the Veda White Vow. We are organized in the Aryan Order (AO) and in the International Defense-force of Aryans (IDA) and our ultimate goal is to establish a new ethereal Atlantis for all good people and reach aufheben – the absolution of temporality for the heavenly heart (for more on our conception of Atlantis, the Vril-Energy and the aether, see Riis-Søndergaard, 2024f). As such, we are, as well as traditionalists, futurists and this notion is important, for, as we have mentioned, white magic is all about creating a better and absolute good world for the good mankind, despite of and overcoming temporal evil. We are allied with the people of Agartha, practitioners of white magic, and the myth of Agartha foretells that in the later days, the people of Agartha will rise to the surface of the earth and bring spiritual enlightenment and liberation to all good people and redeem the world from the evil grip of the people of Shambala – this is exactly what is happening now, as the Aryans are awake, gathered anew and ready to lead good people into a new golden age, leaving the Kali Yuga of strife, conflict, injustice and war behind us. Therefore, white magic is all about truth and righteousness. We are currently fighting at all the epistemic fronts of post-modernity, but we demand total demarcation to evil, for we have absolutely no tolerance for evil, as is otherwise commonplace under the misconceived Neo-liberal regime of so-called political correctness and “humanitarian” tolerance. The result of this misconception is that evil is allowed to prosper in a transnational usurpation of economic and political power, which we will never accept or tolerate.

Aryan justice and a new world order

We might not agree with the historical National-Socialism of Germany that the world should be conquered by force and violence. Rather, we believe that the world should be conquered by faith and epistemics, that is, by truth and righteousness, but it is important to remember that the National-Socialists were not necessarily bad people, as liberal history books otherwise proclaim. The motto of SS was “meine ehre heisst treue”, which means “my honour is my faith/loyalty” and above the entrance to Wedelsburg, the SS headquarter, it was written “my house shall be called a house of prayers”, so the National-Socialists were in general true to the Aryan cause – the great cause. They had faith and fought against capitalism, Communism, Freemasonry and the Illuminati, all belief-systems that were atheist and materialist. It is also important to note that the present generation of the Aryan elite has occult information that informs us that the true cause of the Second World War was not German expansionism per se, but rather due to the fact that the Germans discovered a sinister international plot to attack the holy and ethereal Aryan race with weaponized Tesla-technology. Tesla (re-)discovered the aether in the beginning of the 20th ct., a knowledge that was known in ancient times, but which since became occult. White magic is all about being on the right side of history and that side is among the Aryans, who are, as we have mentioned, not that many, contrary to what the newspeak concept of the Indo-European would imply. We are allied, though, with the majority of the world's population, from Japan, over India, Russia and Europe to most Americans and South Americans. What we fight for at present is a geopolitical reset, which implies: 1) the eradication of weaponized Tesla-technology and 2) the gathering of the Aryan elite in, what we call, Wolfenstein – a headquarter in Southern Norway, where the Aryans can live to further the Aryan cause and order and command our allies in establishing a new world order. Aryans are the true “thousand points of light”, as the elder Bush spoke about, and we work to redeem the world from those people, who have “become death”, as Oppenheimer stated. The SS also had “the Black Sun” as one of its symbols and today we realize that this symbol of the inner sun of the universe, the spiritual sun, is a veiled recognition of the transcendental aether, which is fathomed by “the third eye”, namely by the pineal gland. This “invisible aether” is the habitat of the Aryan race, a reality, we rule supreme. It is absolutely good and evil hallucinations and nightmares we term black magic for they are illusory, void and abysmal and have no relation to spirit – they are ontological foreign to the Aryan race. We, the Aryans, demand freedom from occult, black magic and negative interference – we will never tolerate evil in the world, for creation is good and evil is alien. Also the sig runes used in the “SS” symbol symbolized the sun and/or victory. We interpret this “sig rune” to furthermore symbolize the Vril-energy or the aetheric energy that is so fundamental to the Aryan race. We will end this introductory paper on “the battle” by emphasizing that the Third World War, we are currently enmeshed in, is a war of faith and epistemics – it is a question of speaking truth to power and eradicate the false conceptions of atheism, nihilism, secularism and materialism, as well as empiricism and positivism, so that we may once again experience the fullness of life, a spiritual and mystical life that is so alive with emotions, vibes and atmosphere – true life is the transcendental, ethereal life of the Aryan race, which all good people are inspired by and which is so fundamental and a guarantee for love, truth and righteousness to rule the world. The actual truth of existence for all good people is remarkably radical in contrast to the prevailing Neo-liberal/Marxist regime. Our goal is to implement an Aryan spiritual aristocracy to rule our homelands (see Riis-Søndergaard, 2024g) and this is a precursor to a new golden age – a new Atlantis for all good people. See also (Riis-Søndergaard, 2024h) for more on the new Aryan culture, we present, and the ethereal life of the Aryan race, which we term the Væi. We wish to end this paper by thanking all good people for their contributions to a new and just world order and we wish to bless all good people in their journey towards a new Atlantis. Finally, good luck.
